

Age	Allergies	Health status	Weight/BMI	Mobility
Children aged <15	Propofol/Diprivan or severe egg allergy	Patients from high level residential care Patients with a disability requiring 24/7 care	130kg maximum	Unable to walk or get up on procedure trolley
75+ and unable to climb flight of stairs or walk more than 100 metres	Severe allergy requiring the use of EpiPen 	Patients from another hospital and/or an ambulance transfer	BMI of 40 or greater for gastroscopy ***
		Patients who are neutropenic	BMI of 45 or greater for colonoscopy ***
		Patients with diagnosed malignant hyperthermia Patients with malignant hyperthermia susceptible relatives
		Patients with moderate/severe aortic or mitral stenosis
		AMI or CVA in last three months
		Elective cardiac stent insertion in last 6 weeks # (Not related to AMI/unstable angina)
		Internal cardiac defibrillator in situ
		Patients with severe COPD/O2 dependent
		Patients with severe renal impairment/having dialysis
		Patients with communicable diseases, C.Diff, Influenza or Tuberculosis
		Patients who are pregnant

** May need a consult prior to scope booking

*** Please discuss with anaesthetist

Endoscopist to discuss with cardiologist for opinion due to dual anticoagulant therapy. Inform anaesthetist of the plan

Before contacting anaesthetist please check if patient has previously had scope at Victorian Gut Centre and have copy of past anaesthetic notes at hand